Superintendent's Message

I wish to congratulate the Seniors of 1937. You have now the best education our city can provide for you. Go out into the world and make the best possible use of that education. The world needs you, the perplexing problems of life have never been solved and never will be, but at this particular time you are badly needed in a world ablaze with conflicting social thinking. Do not fear the world. Enter into it with confidence that you have a real contribution to make to it.

Teacher's Training

The enrollment consists of twenty-three students: thirteen from Shawano, one from Manawa, four from Tigerton, two from Marion, two from Clintonville, and one from Pulaski.

The teachers in charge of the two departments—teacher's training, and demonstration room—are Miss Emma Bottin, and Miss Alice Aderman.

The student teachers receive their instruction in the methods that will enable them to teach in the graded schools.

After the first six weeks of school, the student teachers took over their practice classes. The third week in March was spent in rural cadet work. The climax of teaching was the quarter-day practice, done in the demonstration room. During the course of the year, the students were required to write up observations on fifty rural classes.

Several social gatherings were held during the year. In the fall, a picnic and Halloween Party were given; later a Christmas Party was held.

This class attained considerable recognition in athletics. Both the boys and the girls organized basketball teams under the direction of Mr. Thomas. They had a very successful season, winning approximately seventy-five per cent of their games.

Madrigal Club

The Madrigal Club was organized in 1935 by Miss Davidson for girls who were interested in singing. This year again it is an active organization.

We sang at the Musicales in March and April, and at the Band Festival. In addition we have given programs for the Women's Club and the Speech Institute.

One of our projects this year has been the raising of money for charitable purposes. At Christmas time we gave food and toys to a poor family, and hope to take care of more next year. This money was obtained by candy and ice cream sales.

Orchestra

The orchestra has an enrollment of approximately twenty-eight members. It was organized in the fall of 1936 for the purpose of giving students that are interested in playing stringed instruments an opportunity to engage in some musical activity during the course of the school year.

This group practices twice a week after school, under the direction of Miss Perry. The orchestra plays classical music entirely. The organization is composed of students from both grade schools and the high school.

The orchestra gave a concert on March 2, in conjunction with the Madrigal Club and the B Band.

The A Band has an enrollment of seventy-five members.

During the course of the year, the band is very active in school activities—furnishing music at all the football and basketball games. The band also plays for many civic events, and gives concerts during the summer months.

Last year the band entered the District Band Tournament held in Shawano and carried off the first award for marching.

The band, under the leadership of Mr. Blissett, has made a great deal of progress during the course of this school year, and also is doing its part to keep the school spirit going, by playing in assembly for pep meetings.

The B Band is composed of about fifty-two members, and is very active during the school year. The band was organized about three years ago, to get students prepared for entering the A Band.

This year, the group has, by far, the best instrumentation it has ever had. The band is composed of practically all new members this year, due to the number of players taken into the A Band in the fall.

The B Band gave a concert on March 2, in conjunction with the orchestra and the Madrigal Club.

This band, under the leadership of Mr. Schmidt, placed second in the D division of the Band Tournament held in Shawano last spring.

Besides being an honor student scholastically, Ruben has taken an active part in music, dramatics and speech work.

LOYAL LEADERSHIP

This year, the honor award for loyal leadership goes to whose influence among the members of the student body has been most outstanding. Marvin ranks in the upper fourth of his class scholastically, and has participated in speech and dramatics. He is one of the Business Managers of this book.

MARVIN STEINKE

LEGION AWARD

ERNEST BAUMGARTEN

Glee Club

The Glee Club, under the leadership of Mr. Schmidt, was organized last fall, and is composed of one hundred and thirty members. It is very active during the entire school year. The club put on two programs in the assembly hall and sponsored the Christmas Pageant, the funds of which will go toward the purchase of gowns for the Glee Club.

This spring, the Glee Club gave the Operetta "In Old Vienna"—a Musical Comedy.

Because the original group was so large, the Glee Club, the second semester, was divided into two divisions. The first Glee Club, which consists of about seventy-five members, meets on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, while on Monday and Friday, the entire one hundred and thirty members meet.

Jonas H. Pennington, an American millionaire pickle manufacturer, with his daughter, June arrived in Vienna amidst preparations for the annual carnival. To his consternation, he found Jones, his advertising expert, advertising Pennington's Peter Piper Pickles too well. An old acquaintance, Lady Vivian, a wealthy Englishwoman, also arrived on her annual quest in search of her daughter, who was lost near Vienna at carnival time when a baby. Kinski, the pompous police chief, plots to substitute the lost child of Lady Vivian and marry her for the fortune.

A band of Gypsies visited the carnival led by Jigo, the chieftain, and his supposed daughter, Ilona. Events lead all to the Gypsy camp, where a magic pool revealed the face of Lady Vivian's daughter. Arthur Crefont, a poor artist, won recognition of his art and also the hand of June Pennington. Lady Vivian consented to become Mrs. Pennington; Kinski's plot was exposed; Ilona was restored to her mother and Jones was rewarded with success in his campaign for the hand of Ilona.

National Forensic

Shawano High School is fortunate to be one of the 25 schools in Wisconsin which has a chapter of the National Forensic League. This League, a national honorary forensic society, has 500 chapters in 40 states; Wisconsin's quota is 25 chapters.

We have had our chapter for 11 years, during which time we have had a total of 70 members in the national organization. This year we have twelve members in the national organizations and 32 members in our local chapter.

Ethel Hickenbotham, Walter Eberlein, Harvey Redman, Edward Sommers, Loren Hotz, Ruth Adams and Douglas Milsap hold the highest degree possible in the national organization, the Degree of Distinction.

Forensics

Shawano High School has a forensic plan which involves every student in the course of the year. Every student must give either a three minute declamation or oration as a part of his English course and as English is a required subject this includes every student. Twelve of these are pickd from each division of each class to compete in the class finals, the winners of which pick 12 minute selections and compete in the school finals. The forensic coaches are Miss Mielke, Mr. Olson, Miss Meiselwitz, Miss Perry, Miss Weber, and Miss Johnson.

NATIONAL FORENSIC LEAGUE TOURNAMENT

Shawano speakers brought home the second place banner from the state National Forensic League Contest this year, winning a total of 49 points as a team unit. Kenosha won first with 51, and Sheboygan tied with Shawano for second.

Six of the ten speakers entered reached the finals, ranking with the upper eight out of a total of thirty-two in each division. In original oratory, Dolores Keshena won a second, qualifying her to enter the Nationals held at Jacksonville, Illinois, in May. In this same division, Douglas Milsap placed fourth. In dramatic declamation Jane Anderson placed third, while Ruth Adams won a fifth. In the oratorical-declamation contest finals, Loren Hotz received a fifth, and Edward Sommers a seventh. Gretchen Nommensen was not eliminated until the fourth round while Dorothy Peterson and Ethel Hickenbotham reached the third round.

Miss Sarah Mielke and Donald Olson accompanied the students to Waukecha where the contest was held at Carroll College.

NATIONAL N. F. L. TOURNAMENT

Shawano again, as in the past five years, was represented in the National Tournament. Dolores Keshena entered the division of original oratory at Jacksonville, Illinois, May 3-7. The title of her oration was "Indian Dawn."

Debate Team

Through the efforts of Coach Donald Olson, a great amount of interest and enthusiasm has been aroused in debate work. Fifty students responded to the invitation to participate in debate work early in September of this year. Through a series of elimination contests, the squad was cut to twenty-two students who continued in debate for the rest of the season, participating in seventy-two debates with other schools.

The members of this year's varsity team were—Affirmative: Edward Sommers, Ruth Adams, and Walter Eberlein, Captain; Negative: Harvey Redmann, Ethel Hickinbotham, and Douglas Milsap, Captain. This team entered the first round of the State Wisconsin Forensic League contest and were defeated by only one of the four teams they debated. The negative defeated Ripon and Menasha, while the affirmative defeated New London and lost to Clintonville. The season in general was very successful. Out of a total of twenty-eight decision debates, Shawano lost eight. The question this year dealt with government ownership and operation of all electric utilities.

Debate

NORTH EAST CONFERENCE TOURNAMENT

The opening tournament of the debate season was held this year at Two Rivers, Wisconsin, in the form of the North-Eastern Conference Tournament. Shawano entered eleven students, and won first place—having won all six debates. The teams defeated by Shawano were Kewaunee, Oconto, Algoma, Oconto Falls, Clintonville, and New London.

FRESHMAN-SOPHOMORE TOURNAMENT

The Freshman-Sophomore tournament was held in Shawano this year. Ten schools entered, and Shawano won the tournament by defeating five out of six teams. Robert Thimke, Shirley Ritchie, Virginia Oertel, Donald Rosenberg, John Martin, Dorothea Martin, and Robert Marotz represented Shawano in this meet.

APPLETON TOURNAMENT

Nine people representing Shawano, entered an invitational tournament at Appleton, meeting some of the best teams of the state. Shawano tied for second place with Mayville—defeating four of the six teams they met.

SHEBOYGAN CLINIC

Sheboygan held a debate clinic again this year. In a clinic, no decisions are given, but speakers of one team are rated and compared with the speakers of the opposite team. Shawano was matched with such schools as Washington High, Milwaukee, Manitowoc, West Allis, and Sheboygan; and in most cases, ranked above them as individual speakers.

MARQUETTE NATIONAL FORENSIC LEAGUE TOURNAMENT

The debate division of the National Forensic League was held separately from oratory, declamatory, and extemporaneous work this year at Marquette University in Milwaukee. Shawano's varsity team consisted of—Affirmative: Edward Sommers, Ruth Adams, and Walter Eberlein; Negative: Harvey Redmann, Ethel Hickinbotham, and Douglas Milsap. The team debated in three rounds—being eliminated after losing three debates. The negative team did a fine piece of work, defeating all three of their opponents; Kenosha, West Allis, and Cathedral High, Milwaukee. The Affirmative unfortunately lost their debates to strong teams; Washington High, Milwaukee, Portage, and Plymouth. The tournament was won by Sheboygan; second place going to Kenosha.

With Mr. Lewis as our new director, we of the Dramatic Club, have had a most interesting year. Not only by giving creditable performances have we shown our progress, but also by the admission of a selected and talented group of new members to the organization.

Mask

"Have I enough rouge on???—What's that one line on page 26? You could use some lipstick. Oh, don't be excited. We have to get off the stage now—here goes the curtain."

So was the lively conversation amid the scurry and confusion prior to the curtain of our fine plays this year.

The "brilliant season" was opened with the four smashing successes; "An Amateur Hamlet" given by the able group of Freshmen; "The Dummy" by the Sophomores (who, by the way, gave the Seniors something to worry about); "The Mad Breakfast" by the Juniors, and "In Doubt About Daisy" by the Seniors. The Seniors, not to break the precedent, took first place, with the Sophomores a close second.

The Dramatic Club opened its formal season in February. The "London-derry Air" was the play the club chose to present at Oconto Falls for the one-act play contest. Even though Oconto Falls placed first in the contest, our cast gave a very fine performance. Crystal Wege, Woodrow Marciel, Martin Runge, and Jane Anderson, all members of the Dramatic Club, played the parts of the four New England characters.

The dramatic season was brought to a triumphant close on May 31, with the presentation of the Senior Class Play "Another Spring," a Romantic Romance in a Prologue and Three Acts. The setting of the prologue is: Carlisle Manor, one night during the Revolutionary days. The three acts take place at Carlisle Inn during the present time.

Hesperia

Hesperia is the oldest girls' organization in Shawano High School. It was organized in 1927 under the direction of Miss Grace McVety to promote interest in forensics and dramatics. These fields have now become part of the regular school curriculum, but Hesperia carries on as a social organization. Meetings are held twice per month. The club is divided into groups this year, and each group has charge of a meeting. Under Miss Mielke's supervision we have had a variety of very successful meetings. Hesperia has earned a reputation for sponsoring each year the fall Homecoming Dance.

Varsity Football Squad

The 1936 football season began with little seasoned material. It became necessary for our new coach, Mr. Dilts, to whip an aggregation together out of inexperienced players. As you can see on this picture. Shawano lacked big men, as compared to the '35 squad.

Our record in conference competition was three victories and three losses. In point of the games won, our football season was not successful. It was, however, successful in other ways. The boys not only learned to play the game hard and clean, but also to play with the spirit of determination to win every game.

Coach Dilts is respected by each man on the team, and his influence upon the boys is much better than a team victory.

Forty candidates reported for football today to catch a glimpse of the new athletic coach, Mr. Clifford Dilts. Although the team lacks weight, they exhibit determination. The team will be built around the nucleus of several of last year's major letter winners, Allheiser, Baumgarten, Barker, Rosenow, Prast, Lepscier, Reed, Robbins, and Meyers. Several promising members of last year's team will be fighting hard for varsity berths. All in all we point for another successful season.

SHAWANO 6—MENOMINEE 13

Today saw the opening of the Shawano Indian 1936 football campaign, as we traveled to Menominee. Inexperience cost the Indians two touchdowns in the first quarter of play. Shawano crossed the Michigan city eleven's goal in the second quarter on a long pass from Baumgarten to Allheiser. Although the team lost, it gained considerable experience from their heavier foes.

Shawano, Wis.—September 26, 1936.

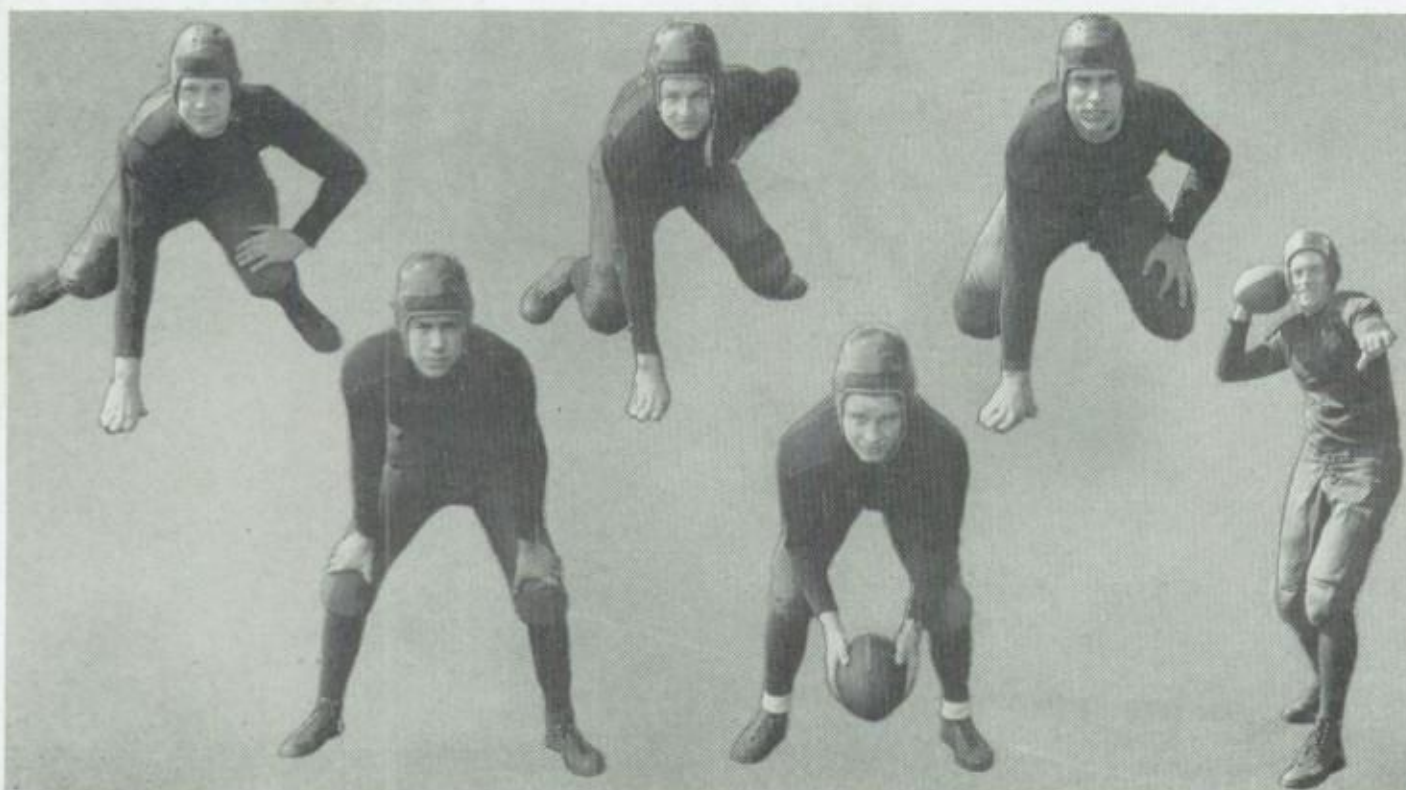

SHAWANO 12—NEENAH 0

Dilts' fighting Indians captured a victory in their first conference game by defeating the Red Rockets from Neenah. Although both teams were scoreless for two quarters, the Indians came back in the second half with a smashing attack. "Bud" Barker, at the pivot position, was the outstanding defensive man for the locals.

Clintonville, Wis.—October 3, 1936.

SHAWANO 40—CLINTONVILLE 6

Nearly every man saw action today as the Indians backed the Trucks, our ancient rivals, clear off the field. The regulars went to work in the second quarter and rolled up three touchdowns to give the locals a comfortable lead. The Trucks proved powerless under our driving attack, but managed to break away once for their only score of the day.

New London, Wis.—October 9, 1936.

SHAWANO 0—NEW LONDON 6

The old-fashioned "sleeper play" cost Shawano High School a conference game last night. Shawano outgained New London nine first downs to two, but poor ball handling ruined many of their scoring chances. The game was played on a rain-drenched field. Allheiser, Jim Barker, and Baumgarten were the main cogs in the Shawano offense.

Shawano, Wis.—October 16, 1936.

SHAWANO 13—WEST DEPERE 7

The highly-touted Black Phantoms of West Depere met defeat at the hands of the Indians last night in one of the closest and hardest fought games of the season. Shawano scored first in the second quarter of play when Reed, stocky backfield man, crossed the Phantoms' goal. The try for the extra point was good. Several minutes later, Berken, Depere's ace halfback, raced seventy-two yards for a touchdown, and converted the extra point to tie the score 7-7.

The climax of the game came in the final minutes of play when Baumgarten ran sixty-two yards for a touchdown. By virtue of this win the boys made our homecoming dance a victory dance. Due credit should be given the line as they played brilliant ball both offensively and defensively, although outweighed at all positions.

Shawano, Wis.—October 23, 1936.

SHAWANO 6—MENASHA 9

The Shawano Indian's booted their chance of going into first place by bowing to the Menasha Bluejays. Although the locals made several spectacular but belated efforts to score in the last few minutes, the Bluejays stopped them in every drive.

Kaukauna, Wis.—October 31, 1936.

SHAWANO 6—KAUKAUNA 7

A heart-breaking game was lost to the Electric City eleven, as the Indians concluded their season of gridiron activities. Our defeat was due to the inability to convert the extra point. By this victory, Kaukauna clinched the western division title of the Northeastern conference.

District: Shawano won the Oconto District Tournament by defeating Oconto Falls in the first game, 34-24. The following night, the Indians held back a desperate attack staged by the Marinette Marines to defeat them 29-23. By virtue of this win, Shawano plays the winner of the Kaukauna District Tournament which is in New London.

Regional Playoff: Shawano defeated New London on their floor 25-20. For the first time in years, Shawano plays for the Class B state title.

State: Shawano played South Milwaukee of the Suburban Conference, and were defeated 30-29 in a nip and tuck combat. A free throw with five seconds to play gave the suburban team the victory. The Indians stepped into the Class B consolation finals when they downed Sparta 30-18. Gottschalk paced the Shawano attack with nine points. By defeating Stoughton, Shawano won the consolation championship. Robbins and Reed were the offensive stars for the Indians. Fine work, boys and coach!

Lettermen's Club

The Lettermen's Club was organized in 1932 by Mr. Gharrity, former athletic coach. Any person having earned a letter in some major sport in high school is qualified for the club. At the time the club was organized, there were about twenty members, while now there are over thirty.

The Lettermen's Club has accomplished much in the past few years. The club has purchased a new time clock for our basketball games. The members of the club also took the responsibility upon themselves to usher at the basketball games this season.

Intramurals

The popularity of intramural sports was shown this year by the fact that, although it was a non-credit activity, one hundred and fifty boys showed intentions of participating, and had a lot of fun when the season was in full swing.

At the beginning of school, volleyball teams were organized under the direction of Mr. Babington. A tournament was held in which the Cardinals won the school championship.

During the winter months, twelve intramural basketball teams were organized by Mr. Babington. After the regular season of play, a tournament was held. The Championship trophy was awarded to the Blackhawks for defeating the Sparks in the finals in an overtime tile—20-16.

LITERATURE

Senior Class Will

We, the heap-big chiefs and tribe of '37, write this will with peace-pipe smoking, and all hatchets buried:

To the big Sitting Butch and the school board, we leave loud grunts of satisfaction.

The faculty receives much loss of shut-eye and great gains of scowl-face.

To the janitor is bequeathed our gum under the desks, waste paper in the corners, and lipstick smudges on the wall.

The Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen acquire our dignity, wit, and height respectively.

Esther Miefert wishes her "crushes" on to Jean Fisher. Catherine Heinz leaves her ability for housewarming to Blanche Wahl. Merrill Aderman, Russell Aderman and John Black will their Ford to Jack Nachtwey, Niel Wirtz, and Niel Druckrey.

Rose Sperberg leaves McPhearson to all the little Freshmen girls (and Lena Brackob). Orval Bast has unanimously left "Fritizie." Priscilla Humphrey gives her tan to Ruth Kroll with the process of burning.

Dorothy Peterson and Jane Anderson leave their "pulls" to Ruth Adams and Gretchen Nommensen. Myrna Hoppe bestowes her first place before the mirror to Josephine Sherman.

Marie Bohn leaves lights out for Arline Gillespie. "Speedy" Rutherford leaves his "Atlas Physique" to Don Robbins. Dorothy Peterson leaves Oliver Ebert to Ruth Hoffman. Marcella Schultz bestowes her aloofness to Clara Mae Koonz. Francis McCurtain leaves a few inches of his height to one of the up-starting Freshmen, Donald Kroenke.

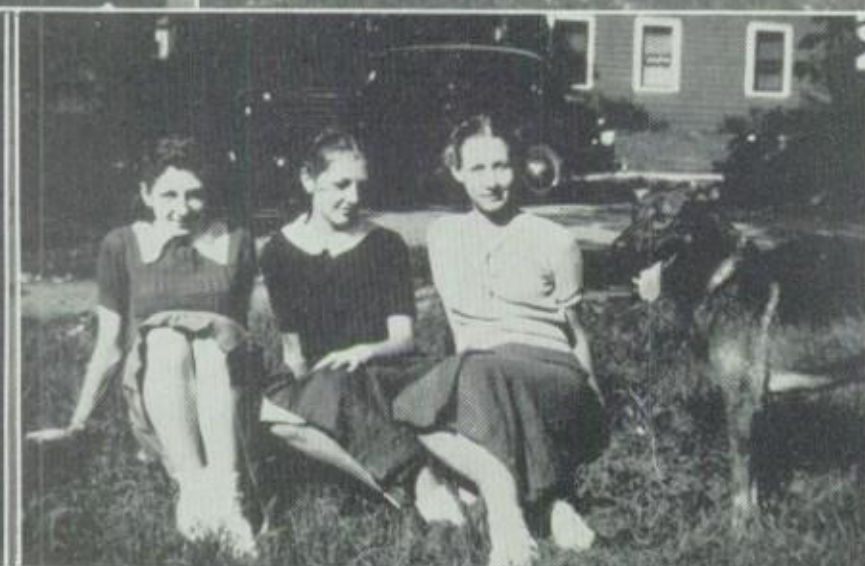

Alex Lepscier gives his knowledge of history to Russell Ecke. Marvin Steinke confers his "guffaw" to Walter Eberlien.

We hereunto affix our seal.

Class Prophecy

Hop into our plane, specially designed by Gaylord Vanderpool, and let's peek into the future.

We hear the latest reports—Francis McCurtain is on his honeymoon with that certain brunette. Dorothy Peterson has made a name for herself as a dress designer in Paris. Marvin Steinke (still a confirmed bachelor) has established himself in the field of surgery. Jane Anderson is an instructor at a Dramatic School. Gordon Oberle is "Swing Master" of the "swing swings." Ruth Eng has out-typed all the typists at 180 words a minute. Marcella Schultz has captured that millionaire without any difficulty. LaVerna Reichel has been awarded a movie contract in the Mae West curvacious figure contest. Martin Runge has proved to be the best Romeo yet seen.

Going at the terrific speed of 350 miles per hour, we reach our destination. We landed on the roof of Speedy's Cafe, and are entertained with interpretive dancing by Catherine Heinz and Evelyn Houck. Bartender, Leslie Rosnow is seen mixing "Tim Anderson's" special, noted for its "kick." Bud Barker is amusing himself by drawing cartoons on the table cloth. Henry Allhiser enters with an injured arm—as a result of the latest Packer football game. Eldor Rosenow, editor of the New York Tribune, is cross-examining Marie Bohn on her latest love affair.

Calling all planes—calling all planes—be on the look out for Public Enemy No. 1, Orval Kroening. We (Dorothy Peterson and Marcella Schultz) realizing the dangerous disposition of the people, leave you to search for Public Enemy No. 1.

THE SPIRIT OF '37

Four years ago, we stumbled across the threshold of Shawano High, and to-day we celebrate the fourth anniversary of our "sit-down" strike.

We organize with Ruben Schmidt as our dynamic mouthpiece. "Friends, Freshmen, and fools (that should take care of everyone). Will we stand for these abuses????? NO!!—We'll sit!! We demand suitable terms for our following fellowmen—which are: shorter working hours, bigger and better lyceums, free gum, no recitations, no home work, no tests, no "Don'ts" from Mr. Reetz, and more free periods!!"

With Woodrow Marceil as our "go between" our demands will be met.

As a result of our strike, many new pupils will enroll at Shawano High.

Hoping you enjoy your high school days as much as we did, we leave you with no regrets.

Class Histories

SENIOR

Looking back over our high school life, we find that the Senior class has been well represented in all school activities.

In oratory and declamation contests, we had Dolores Keshena, Dorothy Peterson, and Jane Anderson.

Ethel Hickenbotham, Marvin Steinke, and Rueben Schmidt upheld the honor of the class in debate.

In basketball, Pat Grignon and Alex Lepscier fought for the glory of their school and class.

Eldor Rosenow, Alex Lepscier, Henry Allhiser, Ernie Baumgarten, and Francis Prast represented our class on the gridiron.

In November of this year, the class took first place in the one-act play contest.

Our Chief this year was Harold Barker, with warriors LeRoy Prey, Jane Anderson, and Dolores Keshena.

Priscilla Humphrey, Dorothy Peterson, Gaylord Vanderpool, Jane Anderson, Marvin Steinke, Henry Allhiser, and Catherine Heinz held offices in various clubs.

JUNIOR

We started on our way to school three years ago as timid Freshmen, but through the years we have gained courage and renown until we have become distinguished upper-classmen.

The call of the gridiron was answered by Ora Meyer, Don Robbins, John Reed, Jim Barker and others of the class.

A large number responded for basketball—Don Robbins, John Reed, Alfred Hartman, Burton Doan, Jim Barker, and others.

Douglas Milsap, Clarence Peterman, and Ruth Adams were among those who shared honors in forensics.

Some of the Juniors helped the Track Team gain renown in the state last spring.

The Junior Prom was our greatest social event.

SOPHOMORE

The Sophomore class of this year, previously referred to as a ship upon its course, is again returning to the home port. It is nearing the close of its second successful voyage. The class is sailing under the leadership of Captain Edward Sommers who is ably assisted by first mate Urban Gottschalk, who is a leading athlete of the class. A few of the members of the crew are Irene Wagner, who is secretary, and Loren Hotz, Harvey Redmann, and Walter Eberlein who are the leading speakers of the class.

The entire crew of the ship is proud of the athletic members—Jim Schweers, Urban Gottschalk, Roy Goree, Merle Cooper, and Fred Dowling.

The declaimers, Dorothy Jane Raddant, Neva Lindquist, and others, aid the masculine members in hoisting the sails, steadying the rudder, and guiding our ship to a safe landing at the end of the voyage. The sun sets on the second year of toil and victory, as the crew prepares for a well-earned rest until it is time to embark upon the third voyage.

FRESHMEN

The Freshmen who came to high school in September were a little green but confident. There are one hundred and sixty-eight in our class.

The class leader is Bob Schroeder. His first mate is George Lindroth, and his second, Ruth Staub.

After nine months of hard work, we have attained prominence in extra-curricular activities, as well as scholastic honors.

There are about twenty-five freshmen out for debate—some of them having made the second team.

The freshman basketball team is very outstanding. It has had two defeats out of sixteen games played.

We expect to continue our good progress in the next three years, and trust that Shawano High will be proud of the 1940 graduates.

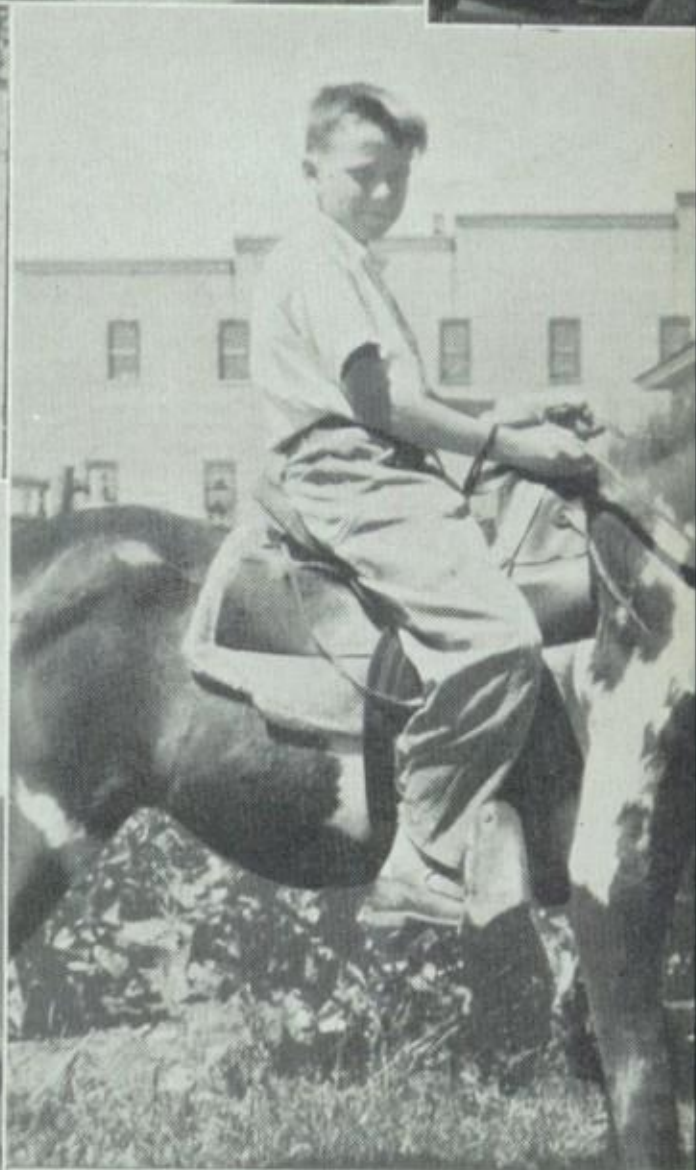

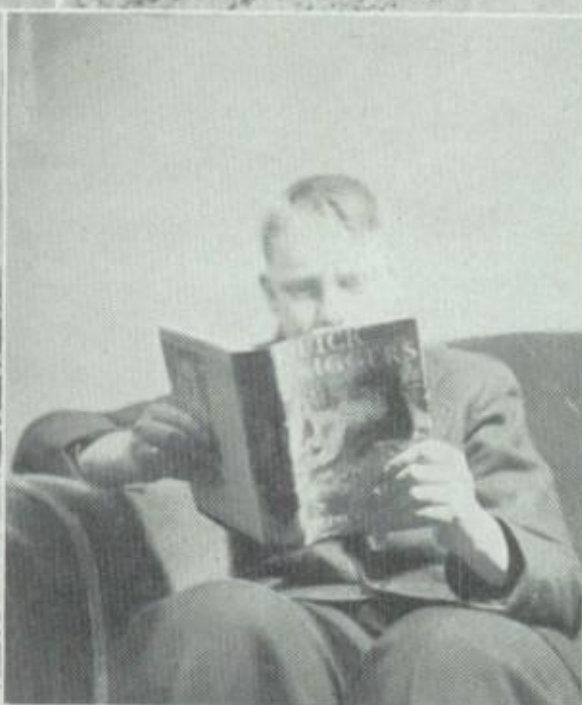

Design

The three men stood in the ring:
Three white men who were
Terrified,
Horror-stricken.
Around them danced savages,
Grunting,
Grimacing,
Pointing derisive fingers,
Yelling,
Laughing.

The fires were lighted.
"Oh, God, not here!" cried the leader,
Whose wife was waiting.
"Please, God, not here!" begged the young man
Who loved blonde, blue-eyed Helen
In the states.
"Dear God, not here!" gasped the old man
Whose quiet home midst poplars
And white frame buildings
And cool breezes
Was far from this dirt
And noise
And sweat
And pain
That made Africa.

They were led away one by one,
Leaving only footprints in the sand,
And a gold locket.
The footprints vanished soon,
But the locket remained.
Later a white man found it,
And wondered.

—Ruth Adams

Just think about it (that's all)

Mr. Reetz says that many students are like coffee—98 per cent of the active ingredients have been removed from the bean.

Then there was that sign on one of the teachers' doors that said: "If I'm studying when you enter, wake me up."

The state test given to Seniors and Sophomores this year was composed mostly of questions about the family tree—but is there any intelligence in looking up your family tree when you know you're the sap?

Mr. Thomas says the brain is a wonderful organ. It starts working as soon as we wake up in the morning, and never stops till we get to school.

Then there was that dumb Freshman who objected to doing outside reading because it got so cold on the porch.

Some of the Sophomores are so narrow-minded that if they were more so, their ears would be on the wrong side of their head.

Most schools are being required to study "wild life," but it seems that Shawano High School originated it.

Then there was that New England epitaph that read: Here lies an athiest, all dressed up and no place to go.

They talk about the revolution in Spain, but you haven't seen anything until you have encountered the occasion of walking out of the main room with a half-pound of tea lead following close behind.

Then there was that dumb Soph, who, after finding some milk bottles in the grass, insisted that he had found a cow's nest.

There once was a time when people wondered what became of little boys who swore. Now we know they become golfers when they grow up.

Years ago, a man would beat his wife at home: Now days, he is lucky if he can just beat her home.

Then there was that French singer "Guillotine" whose theme song was "I Ain't Got No Body."

Sure, Why Not?

"Goodbye, Oly," groaned Babington. "I'm done for."

"Don't say that, Babs," sputtered Oly. "For Heavens sakes, man, don't end your last sentence with a preposition."

Mr. Thomas: "I will not begin today's lecture until the room settles down."

Bill Wolfgram: "Go home and sleep it off, old man."

Sheldon Schmidt to Vernon Lane: "Where is your brother, Victor?"

Vernon: "He's in the house playing a duet. I finished first."

Miss Weber: "Young man, we are about to close the library. Is there anything you'd like to take out?"

Frosh: "Why yes. How about that tall one in the tan dress?"

Mr. Engen: "I'm thinking of asking some girl to marry me. What do you think of the idea?"

Miss Krause: "It's a great idea, if you ask me."

Mrs. Prey: "Le Roy, who was over last night?"

Le Roy: "Delmore Evans."

Mrs. Prey: "Tell Delmore he left his compact on the lounge."

Miss Mielke: "It gives me great pleasure to give you 90 in this subject."

Ruben Schmidt: "Then give me 100 and enjoy yourself."

Babington: "How can I make anti-freeze?"

Bud McCurtain: "Hide her woolen pajamas."

Mr. Dilts: "What inspired the pioneers to set forth in their covered wagons?"

John Martins: "Well, maybe they didn't want to wait 30 years for a train."

Note from teacher on Katty Heinz's report card: "Good worker, but talks too much."

Note from father on other side: "Come up and meet her mother sometime."

Mr. Engen had forbidden the eating of candy and the chewing of gum during school time. One day Evans had a lump in his cheek.

"Evans, are you eating candy or chewing gum?"

"No," replied Evans. "I'm just soaking a prune to eat after school."

Mr. Klein: "Do you know what nitrates are,"—to Gaylord Vanderpool.

"No, but I think they are a little cheaper than day rates."

What would Happen If:

1. Ruben Schmidt got a "O" on a test.
 2. LeRoy Prey lost his sense of humor.
 3. Sheldon Schmidt couldn't talk.
 4. La Verna Reichel lost her compact.
 5. Charles Ramlow lost his curling iron.
 6. Kroenig and Oberle would stop arguing about Fords and Chevies.
 7. Miss Krause would wake up with a smile.
 8. Wilfred Clark got on the honor roll.
 9. Miss Vrhel grew up.
 10. Speedy Rutherford got to school on time at noon.

Episodes

Slowly he came to his desk and slammed her down rudly beside him. Then he picked her up with a look of sorrow in his eyes—due to the unjust method by which he had handled her. His mind was wondering just what she was all about. So many times he had taken her out, but still he couldn't understand her. She was good looking and new too. He hated her, yet he couldn't get along without her. He gathered her in his arms and looked straight at her. For ten whole minutes he stood there in a daze. Suddenly he flung her (HIS GEOMETRY BOOK) in his desk and walked away.

It was Monday morning, but the effects of Sunday night could still be seen on the face of one of the Shawano High School students. The last bell was ringing as he rounded Upham's corner.

His eyes had a look of terror in them, but he kept saying to himself, "I will!" "I must!" "I will!"

His fists now tightened as he stood in front of the door to his room. Again as he stood there he said to himself, "I must!" "I will!"

As he opened the door his eyes fell upon the cause of it all. Now greater than ever the urge came to him, and again he said, "I must!" "I will!"

As he started slowly toward the teacher's desk, the students had a look of fright on their smiling faces. Now his fists tightened and he slowly began to roll up his sleeves. His fist was now well above his head, and the students all cried out in unison one at a time! as his hand came down with a terrific blow right on his teacher's desk and slowly let loose the TARDY SLIP and walked to his desk. ANOTHER DAY'S WORK WAS DONE.

Babs: "Ruben, did you get that report on Einstein's Theory of Relativity?"

Ruben: "Yes, but I'll give it tomorrow. There are some little points that I don't quite understand."

Fantasima Somni

Once, before the sun had risen—
When I soared on wings of sleep
Far beyond this dull drab prison—
There a rendezvous to keep.

Through this medium of slumber
I'm projected into space:
Through these scenes of breathless wonder
Traveling on celestial lace.

Now through marble halls I'm gliding—
In this castle of my mind—
Then upon the west wind riding,
Waiting for some newer find.

When this phantasy is broken,
And the sun recasts its web,
All my beautiful illusions
From the sun light, will have fled.

September

September's days are sunny;
September's skies are blue.
The open roads and highways
Lead on to places new.

The trees are painted sign-posts
Along the right-of-way.
Pass on in safety, traveler,
The road is clear today!

Dear Jay;

Remember all our discussions. You were going to be a farmer but I still don't believe
what you say.
You change too much.

I hope all those history topics were good for your mentality.

After all, we did have a lot of fun.

I wish you all the luck in the world.

Cary.
